

FANUC America Corporation
Named a Top Workplace in
Michigan by the Detroit Free Press

For Immediate Release

ROCHESTER HILLS, Mich., Nov. 25, 2015 – FANUC America Corporation, the leading supplier of robotics, CNCs, and factory automation has been named one of Michigan's top 100 workplaces by the Detroit Free Press for the fourth consecutive year.

The list of the best places to work in Michigan is based on employee responses to an independent survey conducted by the Detroit Free Press. Companies whose workers expressed satisfaction with workplace advantages such as culture, pay, benefits, and amenities make the top workplace list.

“We are honored to be recognized as a top workplace in Michigan for the fourth year in a row,” said Karen St. Louis, director of human resources, FANUC America. “Our employees’ overall satisfaction has allowed us to earn this significant recognition.”

“FANUC America takes pride in having the automation industry’s most talented group of professionals,” added St. Louis. “Creating an environment considered to be a top workplace is essential to our company’s continued success.”
