

FANUC America Expands Operations in 2016

For Immediate Release

ROCHESTER HILLS, Mich., April 4, 2016 – FANUC America Corporation, the leading supplier of robotics, CNCs, and factory automation will open four new facilities, relocate three facilities to larger offices, and add three new regional training centers in 2016. The expansion will allow the company to better serve its growing customer base.

FANUC's facility enhancements include:

- New manufacturing and distribution center in Pontiac, MI.
- New sales and service facilities in Seattle, Monterrey, Mexico and Manaus, Brazil.
- Relocate customer service offices from Dallas to Houston, and Mexico City to Queretaro, Mexico.
- Merge sales and service offices in Sao Paulo, Brazil to a larger facility.
- Enhance training centers at FANUC's offices in San Francisco, Chicago and Charlotte.

"FANUC is fully committed to "Service First", a corporate theme which means that customer service is our highest priority," said Rick Schneider, Chairman & CEO, FANUC America. "That commitment includes lifetime maintenance for all FANUC products throughout their production life."

"With 25 sales and service locations in the Americas, and a total of 250 service locations in 46 countries worldwide, we're positioned in close proximity to our customers all over the world," added Schneider.

The company expects to complete its capacity expansions in North and South America by July, 2016.
